Spotlight on Oxford Art Online
@Elihu Burritt Library

December’s Spotlight

* About the Resource
* Fields of Art
* Tips and Tricks
* Just for Fun

Oxford Art Online offers access to the most authoritative, inclusive, and easily searchable online art resources available today. Grove Art is the foremost scholarly art encyclopedia, offering global coverage of visual culture, composed and expanded in collaboration with thousands of scholars and specialists around the world. In addition, users can search and access Oxford art reference titles including the Encyclopedia of Aesthetics (2nd edition), The Oxford Companion to Western Art, and The Concise Oxford Dictionary of Art Terms.

Fields of Art

- African Art
- American Art
- Art of the Middle East/ North Africa
- Contemporary Art
- Early Christian/ Byzantine Art
- East Asian Art
- Egyptian/ Ancient Near Eastern Art
- Eighteenth-Century Art
- Greek/Roman Art
- Latin American/ Caribbean Art
- Medieval Art
- Nineteenth-Century Art
- Oceanic/ Australian Art
- Pre-Columbian Art
- Prehistoric Art
- Religious Art
- Renaissance/ Baroque Art
- South/Southeast Asian Art
- Twentieth-Century Art

Tips and Tricks for Using the Database:

- Oxford Art Online has several ways by which you can find information including by field, medium, era, region, place type, and occupation.
- There are many useful educational tools and resources you can use for personal enrichment or lesson planning including:
  - Collection Guides
  - Subject Guides
  - MoMA/Grove Art Resources for Educators
  - Timelines of World Art
  - Podcasts and Interviews
  - Italian Renaissance Learning Resources

Just For Fun!

Check out some of the artwork that can be found on Oxford Art Online!

Julio Galan: Tehuana en el Istmo de Tehuantepec, oil on canvas, 1987
Gordon Walters: The Poet, oil and pencil on canvas, 415x514 mm, 1947

Please take a moment to fill out a brief survey to tell us how we did!